LOCATION

Kirkintilloch is located around 12 miles north of Glasgow within the East Dunbartonshire Council area and has a resident population of approximately 19,689 persons.

Kirkintilloch is principally accessed via the A803 which connects with the M80 motorway via neighbouring Bishopbriggs. A wide range of services and facilities are available within the town with transport links to/from Glasgow city centre via both road and rail.

The nearby area is predominantly categorised with traditional flatted dwellings with commercial operators located on the ground floor. Commercial occupiers within the nearby vicinity consist of a number of national and local operators.

The adjacent ordinance extract survey illustrates the approximate location of the subjects for information purposes only.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a ground floor retail unit contained within a traditional two storey tenement building of traditional stone construction with a pitched and concrete tiled roof.

Access to the property is taken directly from Townhead via a recessed pedestrian access a timber and glazed design. The subjects have previously been utilised for beauty therapy and are presented to a high level of finish. The ground floor level extends to a reception area, treatment room, staff room and w/c.

Floors throughout are concrete overlaid in laminate panel flooring. Walls have been plastered and painted throughout, with ceilings of a similar design which further incorporate spot lighting.
